- 3.5. If a winner is ineligible for the contest, the prize may subsequently be withdrawn and a substitute winner determined.
- 3.6. The eligibility of participants will be determined at the discretion of the organizer.

4. Duration, prize, and dispatch of prize

- 5.3. Entry by letter or other means is not permissible and such entries will not be included in the draw.
- 5.4. Comments and submissions from participants may not include defamatory statements or misinformation, or violate competition, trademark, or copyright laws. In the event that third parties nevertheless assert claims on the grounds of a violation of their rights, the participant indemnifies the organizer from all claims. By participating in the contest, each participant is obligated to assume liability for any legal violations on his or her part.
- 5.5. The organizer reserves the right to delete comments with prohibited content. Prohibited content includes pornographic or racist content, content glorifying violence, or any otherwise objectionable content. The deletion of comments will be left to the discretion of the organizer.

6. Liability

- 6.1. With regard to the organizer's liability for damages, the following liability exclusions and limitations apply without prejudice to the other statutory requirements for entitlement.
- 6.2. The organizer is liable without limitation to the extent that the damage was caused by intent or gross negligence.
- 6.3. Furthermore, the organizer is liable for any slightly negligent breach of material obligations whose breach jeopardizes the achievement of the purpose of the contract, or for the breach of obligations whose fulfillment makes the proper operation of the contest possible in the first place and the observance of which the contractual partners regularly rely upon. In this case, the organizer is only liable, however, for loss or damage that is foreseeable and typical for the contract. The organizer is not liable for any slightly negligent breach of obligations other than those mentioned in the preceding sentences.
- 6.4. The above liability limitations do not apply in the event of loss of life, physical injury, or damage to health, for a defect following acceptance of a quality guarantee for the quality of a product, or in the case of fraudulently concealed defects. Liability under the German Product Liability Act remains unaffected.
- 6.5. Insofar as the liability of the organizer is excluded or limited, this also applies to the personal liability of employees, representatives, and agents of the organizer.

7. Early termination of the contest

The organizer hereby makes participants aware that the availability and functioning of the contest cannot be guaranteed. The organizer is authorized to terminate the contest early if its operability can no longer be guaranteed for technical and/or legal reasons.
